Petition Under 37 C.F.R. 1.137(b)
to Revive Unintentionally Abandoned Application

The Commissioner of Patents and Trademarks is petitioned to revive the above-identified application under the provisions of 37 C.F.R. 1.137(b) on the ground that Applicant's failure to respond to the Office action dated March 13, 2001 on a timely basis was unintentional, and that the entire delay in filing the required reply, from the due date for the reply until the filing of a grantable petition pursuant to 37 C.F.R. 1.137(b), was unintentional.

This petition is accompanied by:

(a) The required reply, with request for charging any required fees to Deposit Account No. 14-0116.

(b) A statement that the entire delay in filing the required reply from the due date for the reply until the filing of a grantable petition pursuant to 37 C.F.R. 1.137(b), was unintentional.

(c) A request that the petition fee, pursuant to 37 C.F.R. 1.17(m), be charged to Deposit Account No. 14-0116.

Statement Accompanying Petition Under 37 C.F.R. 1.137(b)
to Revive Unintentionally Abandoned Application

I, James M. Cate, hereby declare:

That I am the attorney of record in the above-identified application, and that I am knowledgeable of the prosecution history of the application and the circumstances leading to its abandonment as documented in the Office communication mailed October 3, 2001.

That the failure to respond to the Office action dated March 13, 2001 on a timely basis was unintentional, and that the entire delay in filing the required reply, from the due date for the reply until the filing of a grantable petition for revival, pursuant to 37 C.F.R. 1.137(b), was unintentional.
